Will Look After the Moral and Social Welfare of Our Soldier Boys.

Plan Adopted by the Supreme Board to Promote Great Work.

Activities Subject to Approval of Our Right Reverend Bishop.

NEXT WEEK SET FOR CAMPAIGN

It being the intention of the Supreme Board of Directors of the Knights of Columbus to adopt a plan by which all Catholics, regardless of membership in the order, may co-ordinate their efforts in the promotion of the work at the recreation camps throughout the country, the Louisville Knights will work in conjunction with the Catholic Conservation Council recently formed for the purpose. The Catholic Conservation Council is an outgrowth of the Federation of Catholic Societies. The objects and aims of the Conservation Council are conservation of the morals of the Catholic youth men who may be quartered at the cantonment now being located near the city of Louisville and to devise and provide ways and means to encourage and assist the Catholic soldiers to broaden and enlarge the scope of their activities so as to embrace the furnishing of wholesome and bodily comforts that may appear germane and to co-operate fully with the duly constituted authorities. All of its activities will be under the supervision and subject to the approval of the Right Reverend Bishop.

The following officers have been chosen of the Conservation Council: General Chairman—P. H. Callahan.

Vice Chairman—E. J. Cooney. Secretary—John J. Shelley. Treasurer—Jacob J. Hubbuck. An executive committee of nine members, six laymen and three priests, will be appointed. A moral committee, which shall meet and confer with a similar committee of any organization to take active part in any moral movement inaugurated for the purification of the city and its environs, and the resultant benefits to the community, has been appointed as follows: Rev. George W. Schuhmann, D. D., John A. Doyle, L. J. Mackey.

The week of July 22-29 has been set apart as campaign week for the Catholic war fund, and every Catholic man and woman in the city will be expected to do his and her part toward contributing to the good cause. A great responsibility has been placed upon the Knights of Columbus by the War Department in designating the order as the channel through which the moral and social welfare of the soldiers and sailors will be looked after, and it has the hearty endorsement of the three American Cardinals and the entire hierarchy of the United States. The million dollars to be provided by the Knights will not be sufficient for the purpose. Additional money will have to be raised, for many needs will arise that are not now foreseen. The money to be raised in Louisville will practically all be spent here. Teams will be lent and pointed and camps at their head, and a regular organization formed which will canvass the city in the same way as it was canvassed for the sale of Liberty bonds, the Red Cross fund, the U. S. C. A. and similar movements.

The Catholic organizations and every Catholic person will see the need as patriots and as Catholics of assisting in this work. So the great Christian heart of the people of this country is aroused to the danger that confronts these boys if steps are not taken to prevent these pernicious influences manifesting themselves.

AWFUL DEATH.

The hand of death came with appalling swiftness to Patrick Gallagher, for years a faithful conductor on the Louisville and Nashville railroad, in a train collision Monday night in East Nashville, Tenn. Two other trainmen were badly injured. Conductor Gallagher left Louisville with his train early Monday morning, and was to make the return trip on Tuesday. Mrs. Sarah Martagh, a widow, who lived with him on Bolling avenue, was notified by L. and N. officials of the death of Mr. Gallagher. Mrs. Sallie Hunt, a daughter, who also lived with her father at the Bolling avenue address, was visiting in Richmond. Besides Mrs. Hunt, Mr. Gallagher is survived by a son, Thomas Gallagher, and three other daughters, Mrs. Margaret Douthett, Mrs. Elizabeth Sexton and Mrs. Kate Helme. The remains were brought to his home and the funeral was held from St. George's church, attended by many of his fellow railroaders and old friends.

PRIEST WITH TROOPS.

The Rev. John J. Brady, born in St. Gabriel's parish in New York City, is the Catholic chaplain with the first contingent of American troops that landed in France. He was formerly with the U. S. S. Arkansas, but was transferred to the marines, and he accompanied the sea soldiers on their trip across. Father Brady was educated at Dunwoody and was ordained five years ago. He was made a chaplain in the navy in September, 1914.

THE DATE SET.

Premier Lloyd George announced in the House of Commons Friday afternoon that the Irish convention would meet July 25 to deal with preliminary business, including the appointment of a Chairman. Lloyd George said the Government had suggested that Henry E. Duke, Chief Secretary for Ireland, act as provisional or temporary Chairman. The Premier added he thought it obviously better that the choice of a Chairman should be with the convention.

The first sittings of the body will be held in Dublin, Lloyd George announced. The convention will be free to sit elsewhere if it so decides. The Government, said the Premier, hoped the management proposed would not involve long absence of the Chief Secretary for Ireland from his duties.

Nominations for the convention, the Premier stated, were not quite complete and until the Government had seen them all it was not in a position to make its fifteen nominations, although these had been provisionally determined on. As the general body of members was so complete, however, he considered they were entitled to proceed.

The Premier said he was glad to acknowledge the admirable public spirit displayed in the offers of many public buildings in Dublin for the sittings of the convention, and he hoped soon to be in a position to make a definite announcement regarding this. The Government, the Premier declared, would do its utmost to assist the convention.

HOME LAWN FETE.

In our columns has appeared notice of a lawn fete to be given on Tuesday evening, July 24, at Summer Park for the benefit of the Visitation Home for Working Girls. The Visitation Home would be a credit to any denomination, and it is with just pride that Catholics claim it and point to it as their own. "By their fruits ye shall know them." What are the fruits of the Visitation Home?

These are a few: It houses in moral safety and physical comfort the homeless and unprotected business girls irrespective of creed. It serves abundantly and attractively three excellent meals a day. It has the "real home" atmosphere and the welfare of the boarders at heart. It frequently provides excellent positions for unemployed boarders. It renders available the sincere heart interest of the kind and good Sisters of Mercy in charge. The Visitation Home has demonstrated that with a little aid it can help itself, and the donor in contributing to its cause feels that he has been of real service to many—that his contribution has been well placed, that the good resulting will increase and multiply. There is a real pleasure in giving when the fruits of one's generosity are so obviously effective as actually shown by the Visitation Home. Facts are the most satisfactory thing in the world to deal with. Come down and take an inspection tour of the Visitation Home. It will prove its claims, and then we know you will not only attend the lawn fete, but will go in a willing and generous mood.

BROTHER RICHARD.

Rev. Brother Richard, of St. Xavier's College, who will celebrate his twentieth birthday next month, has spent his life since a mere youth in imparting the wholesome lessons of Christian education to the boys and young men of Louisville. The venerable brother is still active, hale and hearty and does not show his age. Brother Richard has been the Xavierian Brothers in their time of trial and rejoices now to see them in full vigor. He has been sojourning in Bardonia under the haloed shadows of St. Joseph's church and college, surrounded by St. Xavier's community and many visiting brethren making their retreat.

VINCENTIANS.

The various conferences of the St. Vincent de Paul Society will assemble at St. Peter's church, Seventeenth and Garland, at 7:30 o'clock tomorrow morning, for the annual observance of the feast of their patron saint. Ample arrangements have been made by Rev. Father Edmund Kaiser and St. Peter's Conference, and when all present approach the altar the sight will be inspiring. The general meeting will be held in the afternoon in the Knights of Columbus Hall, when new members will be received and works of the conferences reviewed. "Charity" will be the subject of the principal address, to be delivered by Judge Matt O'Doherty.

CATHOLICS IN MAJORITY.

Rev. Thomas S. Regan, recently appointed naval chaplain, reports that of the 1,300 men aboard the Minnesota, 800, or 61 per cent., are Catholics. The highest percentage reported in any group previous to this was from the United States Naval Training Station at Port Royal, S. C., where Rev. Edward Duff reported 55 per cent. Catholic.

NOVEL WATCH OFFER.

On the last day of the Kentucky State Fair Attorney Horace S. Meldahl will give a guaranteed Green watch, lady's or gentleman's size, for the largest and best potato submitted to him by the opening day of the fair. Potatoes should be sent to his office, 616 Inter-South-east building, where they will be submitted to the official committee. After the decision all will be placed on exhibition.

BECKHAM

Not Present at Hearing of Bankers' and Distillers Men's Protests.

Democracy Means Nothing to Haly-Beckham Machine Followers.

Louisville Herald Conveniently Forgets Infamous G. O. P. Primary.

HUGGINS EXPOSES BRUMLEVE

It was especially noticeable to Kentucky Democrats that our prohibitionist Senator Beckham was not present to hear the protests of Louisville bankers and distillers in Washington Wednesday. They are wondering what the Louisville delegation thought of his action. Senator Ollie James arranged the conference, which was attended by Senators Gore, Lodge, McCumber, Williams and Smith, and statements were made by many distinguished Embury Swearingen and Judge Alex. P. Humphrey, of this city, and E. T. Franks, of Covington. The bankers told of the awful blow it would mean to many of our financial institutions if the drastic prohibition law was passed and the injury to our banks would also be injurious to so many other lines of business, as in crippling the resources of our financial institutions the blow would affect those who from time to time need to borrow money in Louisville business deals. Louisville Democrats are wondering what Banker James B. Brown thinks of the attitude of his protégé, as Beckham and his candidate allies have always been given hearty support here by Mr. Brown. It also brings to mind Beckham's famous saying on achieving victory in 1914 when he said that he never could forget Louisville for the enormous majority given him here against one of its own townsmen, ex-Gov. Willson, and incidentally this majority saved our prohibition Senator from defeat.

Events of the present week show that the Haly-Beckham alliance regard Democracy as a secondary consideration and the Haly-Beckham followers will combine with Republicans, Prohibitionists or any other faction to achieve their ends. As an instance, it will be remembered that Rodman Keenon, Clerk of the Court of Appeals and member of the State Election Board by virtue of his office, combined with the Republican members last year to select Election Commissioner James B. Keenon for Mayor, against Mayor Buschmeyer, the Democratic nominee. If a Stanley man or Stanley follower is selected in the coming primary on the Democratic ticket he can look for strenuous opposition from the same source.

Under the guise of Forward Leaguers and other non de plumes this faction is attempting to control the coming primary, centering attention on the Haly-Beckham candidate for the General Assembly and assisted Axton, the Fusion candidate for Mayor, against Mayor Buschmeyer, the Democratic nominee. If a Stanley man or Stanley follower is selected in the coming primary on the Democratic ticket he can look for strenuous opposition from the same source.

hypocritical attitude dwells on the charges made against the local Democratic leaders and administration by the little coterie of disgruntled Brumleve speakers and affects to impress its readers that the sorehead sayings of the down-and-outers are published as a matter of news instead of as a first aid to the Democratic Republic in machine. Attorney Clem Huggins is doing the community a service in exposing the connection between the Brumleve machine and day by day men who are real Democrats are deserting the Brumleve camp. If the Herald wants to discuss election wickedness it need not go back any farther than last year when the Chilton-Searcy machine robbed Dr. Ryans and Roscoe Conkling in a manner that would have put Jesse James or John Dillinger in the news. The end of the Eighth and Ninth wards returns were 99 to 1 and similar figures and all of this done openly. Incidentally Joe Conkling, a Republican leader and worker of long years standing, was present to see Brumleve slaughter the Herald story goes that Joe advised his younger brother to get out of the party which stood for such offenses. On this infamous primary the Herald is wisely silent.

It is noticeable at the different speeches that much attention is being paid by the voters to the respective claimants for County Commissioner, and Senator McNutt, Joe Nevin, Joe Ludwig, Squire Dorsey and Squire Muenninghoff have been putting in some telling licks with the voters. It is reported that Judge Bingham will take the stump for the allied three, composed of Bingham, Scholz and Cox, in the next few days. Charles J. Veling, formerly of the State Auditor's office, is handling the campaign for the latter three.

The next big event in Democratic circles is the outing of the Bandana Club at the Klondike camp, July 29, and in expectation of a capacity crowd they say John Gruber, Tom O'Mara, Will Connelly, Barney Campbell and Ed Huechler, carrying the Committee of Arrangements, are already busy preparing sandwiches for the occasion.

RECENT DEATHS.

The last solemn rites over the remains of Edward L. Ryan, aged fifty-eight, were held Saturday afternoon at St. Cecilia's church. He resided at 2108 High street and for some time before his death had been employed by the city. Left to mourn his loss are his wife and seven children.

The funeral of Mrs. Mary O'Neill, beloved wife of John H. O'Neill, 1721 Rowan street, took place Saturday morning from St. Patrick's church. Mrs. O'Neill was forty-four years old and was held in high esteem by all who knew her. Besides her husband she leaves twelve children.

There is much sorrow in St. Martin's parish over the death of Henry Heyens, 832 South Clay street, on Monday. He was fifty-six years old and had suffered a long illness. He was a devoted husband and father. His wife leaves four sons, Fred, John, Henry and Arthur, and two daughters, Mrs. William Hegenauer and Miss Charlotte Boes. The funeral was held Thursday morning from St. Vincent de Paul's church.

A useful and well-spent life closed with the passing Tuesday night of Mrs. Mary McNamee, widow of James McNamee and mother of Mrs. John J. Flynn, 4304 West Chestnut street. Mrs. McNamee was fifty-five years old, and her death followed an attack of acute indigestion. Her funeral took place Thursday morning with requiem high mass at Holy Cross church, attended by a large gathering of mourning friends and relatives.

Mrs. Mary A. Marret, widow of Alex. Marret, entered into eternal rest Tuesday morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. A. Dunavent, 650 South Twenty-sixth street. She was born in Ireland seventy-three years ago, but had spent most of her life in Louisville, where she was a high respected woman. She leaves three sons, Alex. L. Lawrence B. and Charles H. Marret, and a daughter, Mrs. Dunavent. Funeral services were held Thursday morning at St. Charles Borromeo church, Father Raffo being celebrant of the requiem mass.

REMEMBERED BIRTHPLACE.

The body of the late Cardinal Falconio, who was Apostolic Delegate to Washington, was recently removed from the vault of his order, the Friars Minor in San Lorenzo, and taken to the little town of Pescocostanza for final interment. The Cardinal incorporated in his will two sections, one to be opened and read immediately after his death, the other to be opened when his body was removed to his final resting place. When the second section of the will was opened it was found to consist of bequests of marriage dowries to a number of marriageable girls of Pescocostanza, the town in which he was born.

IRISH RIVERS DARK.

The rivers of the Emerald Isle have generally a dark color, owing to the fact that most of them at some point in their course flow through peat marshes or bogs, which impart a dark hue to the waters.

WATSON

What a Fellow Georgian Has to Say of His Notorious Neighbor.

Close Range View of Archbishop of Bigotry and Vicious Abuse.

Going Down Like a Drunkard Refusing to See Breakers Ahead.

BRINGS HIS FOLLOWERS MISER

Tom Watson, of wide known repute, has fallen upon evil days. Posed as a unique champion of Simon-pure Americanism by seeking to cast doubt and suspicion on the loyalty of Catholics, he has turned to a new zone of line-light. His efforts seem to meet with scant appreciation if we are to take the verdict of the Dalton Citizen as a criterion.

After pointing out Watson's anti-draft agitation and roundly condemning the same, the newspaper in question in a recent editorial makes some very pertinent remarks, from which we quote but a few: "Recently he has been going down fast, like the drunkard who refuses to see the breakers ahead, and continues his excessive indulgence in the liquid that brings both disgrace and destruction. He has worn his Catholic 'issue' threadbare, and as the Macon Telegraph pointedly observes, the Frank 'issue' died with the election of Hugh Dorsey as Governor. Therefore Watson is just about out of soap, and it is in the extremity of impending disaster to his unworthy bark and its small crew of misguided, often ignorant, followers that he goes forth to seek to enlist new followers by opposing the draft. Therefore it is at war with the greatest military power in the world."

Again we are told "Georgia has suffered much on account of Watson. . . . And what we have long contended is substantiated by the editorial which says in conclusion: 'What has he ever done for his deluded followers except to exploit them and bring them misery and woe by leading them to believe that all men are dishonest and vicious, and that hate and distrust and suspicion are the cardinal virtues.'"

Such is a close range verdict of the archbishop of bigotry, who seems to have lost all power of discretion from long practice in his vicious abuse of the reputation of his fellow citizens. C. B. of C. V.

PLANNING IRISH REPUBLIC.

Darrel Figgis announces that he and his friends are perfecting a plan to establish an Irish republic with a provisional council which shall present its claim for recognition to the Peace Congress which shall bring the war to an end. At first glance it would appear as if Figgis and his supporters wanted to kill the convention and destroy home rule. As a matter of fact, however, Figgis' real intention is to bring the convention and the Government to their senses, and compel both to realize the danger of tampering any longer with the home rule question. For if Figgis succeeds in rallying a large fraction of the people around his standard, and appoints a committee whose duty it shall be to insist in and out of season that Ireland of right ought to be and is a republic, it is not improbable that the Central Powers will back the demand of that committee's delegates for recognition at the hands of the Peace Congress, and that Russia will not oppose that demand. The one drawback to Darrel Figgis' plan is that the United States can not be counted on to support the republicans' claim to the attention of the Peace Congress. On the other hand Figgis' work may have a more far-reaching effect than even he anticipates. Just now the plain people of England are anything but enamored of their system of government, and the recent distribution of "honors" has brought the whole upper class into contempt and made it the joke and scoff of the democratic masses so much so that the Catholic Times, which can not be accused of radicalism, suggests that "titles" be wiped out altogether, since at present they are only a question of bargain and sale. At the moment the English masses are inclined to look with favor on the republican ideal, and if Figgis presents an attractive programme he may find many sympathizers among the English themselves. At all events many think his efforts will have a good effect on the convention.

CATHOLIC PATRIOTISM.

A splendid tribute to the patriotism of our Catholic citizens came from Washington in a speech delivered by Representative Norton. Said Mr. Norton: "Every enduring page of this nation's history, from Colonial and Revolutionary days down to the present hour, is emblazoned with the names and deeds of faithful members of the Catholic church who, true to the great church's teachings and inspirations, true to their God and their country, voluntarily and enthusiastically rendered the greatest sacrifices that mortal man can render in this world to the end that this nation, 'as a Government of the people, by the people and for the people,' might be firmly established and might long endure."

A prominent figure in the United States Senate, in speaking of the enthusiastic and whole-souled response of Catholics to the call of the Government—in the present crisis, said that in his opinion the part played by Catholics in the present war would do more to forever obliterate prejudice than anything that has ever happened. This Senator said he personally knew more than one member of Congress who had been openly anti-Catholic that now had a change of heart, in the face of the tremendous Catholic response to defend the nation.

CATHOLIC KNIGHTS.

The Catholic Knights of Louisville will for the first time in many years forego their midsummer reunion and celebration, due to conditions arising from the war. This decision was reached at a well attended and interesting meeting held Friday night at St. John's Hall, the general sentiment being that Catholics should sacrifice everything for the benefit of the various movements under way for the betterment of conditions of those who have entered the service for their country. President Will Cushing occupied the chair and was pleased with the attendance. Chairman Buchheit reported the progress made toward consolidation of branches, and after an interesting discussion it was voted that every branch in the city should be visited. Encouraging reports were heard regarding the ladies' branch, which is on a good working basis and receiving new members. When branches reported delegates McGinn and Veemman aroused enthusiasm when they announced the great gains of Branch 642, which was soon to have another reception. Gen. Michael Reichert and Treasurer Charles Falk made short talks that contained some timely suggestions.

RED CROSS NEWS.

Responding to the request of Mrs. S. Thurston Ballard, Chairman of the Military Relief Committee, more than a score of volunteer women workers are serving with the sewing unit of the Red Cross at headquarters of the Louisville Chapter. All supplies from the Louisville Chapter will go direct to the points where they will be used. They will not be repacked at any other station either in America or Europe. Any member who can sew will be welcomed at 619 South Fourth street at any time—whether they come to work half an hour, a day, a week or a month. Miss Harriet Anderson, formerly Superintendent of the Associated Charities of Louisville, has accepted the position of Chairman of the Louisville Chapter and arrives today to take up her duties on Monday.

Miss Edith Lovell has accepted the position of Secretary and Superintendent of the Fourth street headquarters. Miss Lovell was Secretary to William E. Morrow during the period of the activity of the Mayor's Committee on Government in the early part of 1915. She will be in charge of the working force at the Fourth-street headquarters. On one day this week the Louisville Chapter took in twenty-nine new members—a number equal to the growth of the entire week preceding. Although no active campaign is being waged, the Louisville Chapter is nevertheless anxious to receive new members. The total membership now approximates 13,400. The membership fee is $1, and half of every dollar paid in is spent in Louisville for Red Cross supplies.

ORPHAN PICNIC.

St. Joseph's Orphan picnic, to be held next Wednesday at Phoenix Hill Park, should be well attended. The additional financial burden placed on the Orphan Society this year by building an addition to their now crowded home in Crescent Hill will tax all the society resources to meet this debt. They appeal to all those who can help to ease their burden. The Orphan Society is making the home comfortable for the many little inmates. For weeks past committees have been busy and have arranged a splendid programme of amusements. Throughout the park will be scattered handsome booths and rest spots, and for all there will be an abundance of refreshments. The ladies offer as a great attraction the dinner and supper which they say they will make the best ever served.

SAILS UNDER PAPAL FLAG.

When Archbishop Benavente Ceretti sails shortly from an American port on an Italian liner for Rome to become Assistant Papal Secretary of State, the ship will fly the Papal flag under an arrangement by which Germany has promised immunity from submarine attack. Ambassador Riano, of Spain, obtained the promise. Archbishop Ceretti until recently was Apostolic Delegate to New South Wales, and for ten years was auditor of the delegation at Washington.

CHAPLAINS APPROVED.

Secretary Daniels has approved the applications for examination of the following candidates for Catholic chaplaincies in the navy: Rev. George W. Foley, of the Church of St. John the Evangelist, of New York City; Rev. Paul Leduc, of St. Joseph's church, Cohoes, N. Y.; Rev. Guzman F. Beckley, of the Dominican House of Studies, Washington. If the applicants pass successfully the physical test they will probably be assigned shortly to the navy.

IRELAND

Sir Horace Plunkett Believes Coming Convention Will Succeed.

Lawrence Ginnell Resigns Seat in Commons to Join Sinn Feiners.

National Convention to Assemble in Hall of Trinity College.

CATHOLIC BISHOPS WILL ATTEND

According to London press dispatches Sir Horace Plunkett, in a statement in reply to a question as to whether he was in agreement with the view that the election of Edward de Valera, a Sinn Feiner, as a member of Parliament for East Clare, killed the prospects of a convention in Ireland to consider home rule, said in part:

"The Republicans are not the only extremists. There are quite as many people who are seriously opposed to any change at all as favor complete separation. The convention's work will be to show that neither policy is practicable nor desirable and to find an acceptable compromise between them. It will be a difficult and protracted task, but there will be a substantial majority. The convention is determined to see it through, and I believe it will succeed."

Laurence Ginnell, Nationalist member of Parliament for the north division of Westmeath, has announced the resignation of his seat in Parliament and says he will join the Sinn Feiners.

Laurence Ginnell for many years has been an uncompromising critic of the Government in Parliament. Since the war he has been particularly strong in attacks on various policies of the Government. At one time he suggested that neutral divers examine the wreck of the steamer Lusitania for arms and ammunition, and later was rebuked by Chancellor McKenna for suggesting that the British were killing German prisoners. After the recent Irish rebellion he attacked the Government for executing the leaders of the movement, and several times afterward spoke on the subject of the rebellion. Several times he was called to order and finally was ejected from the House of Commons for an intemperate attack on Secretary Samuel. It was Ginnell who was recorded as the only member of Parliament to vote in the negative on a resolution expressing Great Britain's appreciation of the entry of the United States into the war. From Dublin Ginnell says that the national convention will convene July 25 in Regent House of Trinity College, according to official announcement. The Chief Secretary of Ireland, H. E. Duke, will preside until the convention chooses its own Chairman. It is expected that the proceedings will be private, but probably an official record will be made of them.

His Eminence Cardinal Logue, who presided at the annual meeting of the Archbishops and Bishops of Ireland at Maynooth College, read a letter in which he earnestly invited him to nominate four Bishops to represent the Catholic church in Ireland at the convention. It was unanimously agreed to accept the Prime Minister's invitation, and four Bishops were selected whose names will be sent forth to the Prime Minister for appointment. With the exception of the Most Rev. Dr. Healy, Archbishop of Tuam, and Most Rev. Dr. Mangan, Bishop of Kerry, who were absent through indisposition, all the members of the Irish hierarchy were present.

The newspaper Kilkenny People was seized and suppressed Wednesday by the police and military authorities. This paper is an important local weekly conducted by Edward T. Keane, an active politician since the days of Parnell, and now Chairman of the local Sinn Feiners. The paper has had frequent difficulties with the censorship, but it is felt in Dublin by good judges that its seizure on the eve of the Parliamentary election to replace Patrick O'Brien, Nationalist, who died July 12, will assist the Sinn Feiners and prejudice any constitutional candidates. The Sinn Feiners will hold a meeting under Keane's Chairmanship to select a candidate, who now will probably be Keane himself.

INTO ETERNAL REST.

The Catholic community was deeply grieved Tuesday afternoon upon learning of the death of Sister Veronica, aged sixty-nine, who had spent more than fifty years in God's service. Sister Veronica had been for a long time at the Ursuline convent at Shelby and Chestnut streets, and was active until stricken with heart trouble. She was Miss Catherine Englemeyer and a native of Germany, but had been in this country only a short time before she entered the Ursuline Sisterhood. Her funeral was held Thursday morning in the convent chapel, attended by many Sisters and a number of the local clergy.

LONDON FOOD PRICES.

Food prices in a leading London hotel were read to the House on Friday by Representative Madden, of Illinois, to show that steaks and other things imported from America are selling there about one-third less than in the United States.

HELP THIS FUND.

The million-dollar campaign which the Knights of Columbus will conduct next week is a work which should stir the Catholic heart to its depths and bring forth the most generous responses. The Knights of Columbus have received the fullest approbation of Cardinal Gibbons and distinguished members of the American hierarchy, of President Wilson and of Secretary Baker, of the War Department, in the great new work which they have undertaken of providing social and spiritual comfort for Catholics enlisted under our glorious flag. As Supreme Knight Flaherty points out, "the need for this great undertaking is patent. Among the many thousands of soldiers about to be enrolled there will be found, as always, a large percentage of Catholic young men. They will require, as men in camp always require, halls or centers in which they can practice their religion and meet for social recreation. But these recreation centers will not be restricted in use. Every man in uniform, no matter what his creed, will be made welcome." This is a patriotic undertaking all should feel it a privilege to contribute to and make successful.

FOREWORD.

The Democratic nomination for office in Louisville and Jefferson county is practically equivalent to an election in November. This being true, care should be taken by the voters when they go to the polls. The candidates for the various offices are known to the people of the county and it would be impertinence on the part of a newspaper to undertake to pick out for the people the one whom they should vote for for any office. Every voter owes more to himself and the public in the selection of public officials than he does to any individual who may be a candidate. Only the best that can be had should be chosen, and the choice, as has been said, is made in the primary. Bear this in mind when you go to the polls, and before casting your vote ask yourselves the question, which of the candidates for these offices are best qualified to fill them, and vote accordingly, thereby avoiding all weak links and presenting a ticket that all will unite upon.

SOME TIMELY DON'TS.

Don't imagine this country is on the verge of famine conditions! It isn't and it's not going to be. It can raise all the foodstuffs it requires and all it will be able to ship to its allies. Hysteria and high prices are twin sisters.

Don't imagine that because the Government is taking precautions to prevent a shortage the shortage is already here! As well assume that taking out a fire insurance policy means the house is already on fire. Governmental encouragement of food production is simply a wise form of national and war insurance.

Don't imagine that because some particular article of food you are addicted to is high, you must have that in its usual quantities or incontinently perish. Particular foods may be high or even scarce, but there will always be plenty of good foods. The goats are not going to starve because of the limitation of the supply of tin cans this season.

Don't hear somebody say something about somebody having heard somebody else say that everything was going up out of sight in a short time and make a rush to place the ladder in a condition to resist a twelve months' siege! Don't rock the boat, and in particular don't overstock the boat. Put just enough in for reasonable food ballast.

CRUCIAL PERIOD.

The crucial period for boys and girls is the vacation period when the ordinary duties of study are relaxed and recreation and play takes the place of serious work. Too often religious safeguards are also relaxed during the summer months. Many a youth has been ruined by the "good times" experienced away from the supervision of teachers and the control of parents. There can be no vacation in the service of God and obedience to his law.

TAKE RIGHT STEP.

The putting of an embargo on food-stuffs is a step in the right direction, that is if the President and his Cabinet really consider the needs of our own people as of primary importance. An embargo, however, does not go far enough. Our food directors must do much more before the situation at home will become tolerable. They must eliminate the trader in futures and the speculator and provide the machinery for bringing producer and consumer together. Unless this is done an embargo will prove a failure insofar as it will bring no relief to the suffering masses.

PUBLIC TO SUFFER.

Consternation prevailed Thursday when it became known that the Louisville Gas and Electric Company had notified Mayor Buschmeyer that it would not furnish sufficient natural gas for Louisville's needs this coming winter, and asking permission to sell "mixed" gas at rates higher than those now prevailing and guaranteed by ordinance. Mayor Buschmeyer indignantly rejected the company's plan, and his course was given emphatic approval by Charles J. Cronan, our next Mayor. There is nothing that justifies this demand, which is looked upon as a declaration of war against gas consumers and the city of Louisville.

WHAT WE LIKE.

We offer no theory of our own, but we like stability of principle, we like a party rank and file, which having fought a battle on principle is willing to stand for that principle through good and evil report; we like a party organization that will not throw away a record that it has preserved for years on any question, for the sake of winning a block of votes here or there, or making alliance with the forces of a temporary popular unrest one year, and with another and quite a different ism the next.

THE RIGHT ONE.

The erection of memorial statues in Washington, D. C., to the founders of various churches is becoming popular. Martin Luther for the Lutherans, Witherspoon for the Presbyterians, Asbury for the Methodists and Roger Williams for the Baptists already have, or will have, statues erected in their honor and in recognition of the principles for which the various denominations stand.

Thus do Protestants overlook the founder of the one true church, who is Jesus Christ, the saviour of mankind. Perhaps they don't know this.

FOLLOW MOTTO.

In raising disturbances throughout the country the motley crew known as the Industrial Workers of the World are but living up to their title of I. W. W.—"I Won't Work."

The Rev. Father J. W. Maher, D. D., after seven years of faithful and fruitful service, has retired from the editorship of the Catholic Advance, and will hereafter devote his time and talents to parish duties. Father Maher made many friends among the press and public as an earnest and fearless writer, by whom he will be kindly remembered. Our best wishes follow him.

Every American citizen should stand by the President in this grave hour. To wipe out any great business because of "fanaticism" is not helping the President. It is making his task more difficult and is giving aid and comfort to the enemy.

When the editor of a daily newspaper has a brain-storm he imagines that all others who retain their normal faculties are in a state of insurrection.

SPECIALLY FOR SOLDIERS.

"God's Armor" is the name of a neat, compact and complete prayer-book for soldiers just issued by the Central Bureau of the Central Verein. The prayers, written especially for soldiers, are simple, hearty and unaffected. Every possible need of the soldier's varied life is provided for. Besides the prayers, pointed, pithy instructions form a valuable feature of the little booklet, which should form a part of every Catholic soldier's outfit. We shall shirk a very serious and real responsibility if we neglect to safeguard the religious life of our boys, exposed as they undoubtedly will be to severe strain in the unusual experiences which are bound to be theirs. The price for this booklet is remarkably small, twelve cents postpaid. It can be had on application to the Central Verein, Temple building, St. Louis.

It is expected there will be many visitors from Louisville and Jeffersonville.

PEOPLE LIKE SPLASH.

Records at the Fontaine Ferry Park swimming pool show that more people have taken swimming lessons this season than ever before in the history of the pool. This is an evidence of the popularity of the big splash with local people, and since the advent of the typical hot weather the pool has increased daily in attendance.

KEEPING UP WITH THE TIMES.
Perhaps there is no country so filled with ambition as America. Class distinction is no bar to mounting desires and he who cares to pay the price may be a hobo riding the bunkers over the Western desert and a few weeks later, if fortune has favored him, he may be dining at the Biltmore in New York with some noted financiers as his entertainers and the papers will write him up with a picture that does him credit. His mannerisms of the road will be spoken of as the charming heartiness of a man who has spent most of his life next to nature's heart and he will be saddled with an aristocratic ancestry in which he has but little personal belief. Again you may take a girl who milks her cows on a back country Iowa farm and who writes letters to an Eastern cousin about "the muddy roads that keep her from visitng awl the peopl she knows." A flurry in wheat may place her father high on the road to success and three years at a boarding school may find her the aristocrat who finds her Western acquaintance a delightful companion.

There is no "previous condition" of life that bars you from associating and being welcomed by the so-called "better classes," provided you can stand the price and possess a fair amount of brains. Not many years ago a young couple came to this country determined to live modestly, acquire a home, have a family and live a quiet, retired life. She had been a second maid in an English vicarage and he had been a footman in a house where some of the greatest men of the day frequently congregated. She had correct manners and speech that became a certain surety of action and he, having heard many arguments in his way of serving, easily became a leader in the village where they made their home. It came about that they prospered and in the course of events the man represented his county in many public affairs, and on the arrival of a belated Earl to view the wheat section, the quiet man of power was chosen to give a welcoming address. He did so quietly, feeling but little shock at acting as entertainer to an Earl whom he had often served, and as

WON THE LOT.

The lot offered at the orphan's picnic on July 4 has been awarded to Miss Bishop Yeager, of Leitchfield, Ky., the winning ticket being sold by Rev. Father Melody. This announcement was made at the meeting held Monday night, when reports showed the gross receipts to be $10,800.

LAWN FETE.
The dates for the annual lawn fete for the benefit of St. Charles Borromeo church have been announced as July 31 and August 1.
It will be held on the church lawn
at Twenty-seventh and Chestnut, with euchre and lotto each afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. On both evenings a really good dinner will be served from 5 to 8 o'clock.

TROOPS FOR FRANCE.
There can no longer be doubt that our troops will go out to France in the natural order, the regular army first, the National Guard next, and the selective army last of all. This means that before the new armies are called up
we have something like 700,000 men to draw upon made up nearly of 300,000 men in the regular army whose ranks will be filled before August 1, and of more than 400-000 men in the National Guard at war strength, a maximum which is being rapidly attained. Thus it is seen that we should be in a position to place half a million men in France before drawing upon the draft army.

PEACE WITHIN A TWO—
It is our opinion that the war
will end as quickly and unexpectedly as it began. The moving factor in bringing the war to a close will be the Pope. This opinion is based upon the fact, among others, that the Clerical or Centre party in Germany has declared for peace "without annexation or indemnity." This stand could only be inspired by a thoroughly sympathetic and unselfish spirit of humanitarianism or paternal affection that knows no partiality. This spirit is characteristic of the earthly representatives of Christ, and in the present instance the personal relations of Benedict
XV. and the Emperor of Austria strengthens our belief. Austria is the instrumentality which the Pope will use most effectively. England's modifications of its war demands
as well as its fear of the influence of the unrestrained policy of Japan in China are also evidence of the dawn of peace. Many other signs point to the early fulfillment of the world's wish, but all are dependent upon the one great motive power, the Pope. We do not expect the war to last more than a few months.
When the history of the peace negotiations shall be disclosed it will be found that the great
"Pacifier" was the Pope.—Boston
Hibernian.

THE INSOLENCE OF ENGLAND.
Complaints have been filed with the State Department against the action of Great Britain in demanding that an American vessel now in Chile, loaded with nitrates for New York, shall, before having its charter approved or having the right to obtain coal at any British port, agree to give part of its time to carrying supplies to England,
through the German submarine zone. This is the first attempt to regulate American coastwise vessels.
If persisted in it will cut down
American commerce with South America.

EAST CLARE ELECTION.

The election to Parliament of a Sinn Fein, Edward de Valera, a leader in the Easter insurrection and very recently a prisoner in an English jail, has caused a commotion both in Ireland and in England. De Valera stood for East Clare, vacated by the death of Major Redmond, and was elected by nearly 3,000 majority over the Nationalist candidate, Patrick
O'Connell, former Crown Prosecutor.
The victory of Sinn Fein is all the more significant, because a short time ago East Clare was a Nationalist stronghold. Added significance is had in the fact that De Valera, who was born in New York of an Irish mother and a Spanish father, adopted the programme of Easter week, 1916, as his platform and invited the electors to vote for an Irish republic of sovereign and absolute independence. According to Unionist and Liberal papers this election will probably wreck the Nationalist party and will nullify the work of the convention. In their opinion Ireland has spoken,
through East Clare, for absolute freedom in repudiation of Mr. Redmond's programme. A Dublin dispatch says:
It is believed here that the result of the East Clare election will interfere with the arrangement for the assembling of the Irish convention, as it is considered to represent a feeling of lack of confidence in the good faith of the Coalition Government and a belief that the Irish party went too far in its consideration of the Government's war difficulties and received no adequate recognition of the party's reasonable attitude.

The Dublin correspondent of the Times declares that the Government must deal with a new and powerful party, for "it is probable that no Nationalist seat in the House is now safe outside Dublin,
and perhaps not even there."
The Irishman forgetful that England is also participating in American gold, asserts that Sinn Fein is moving to success by means of American money. The Daily Telegraph remarks that the Irish members of Parliament, of every shade of political opinion, agree that the East Clare election has both discredited the Nationalist party and made clear to all that the only way to settle the Irish trouble is to establish an Irish republic. The London Times comments as follows:
The programme of the successful
party is quite frankly revolutionary, anti-English and separatist. There is not and never can be the slightest question either among Englishmen or among serious Irishmen of accepting the wild programme with which the new member and his friends have won their seats in Parliament. There is all the more reason therefore why the best elements in Ireland should go forward and review the situation together with a determination to agree. If they should fail, the responsibility for good government will remain where it is today. To refuse the effort at this day would be the counsel of sheer despair.

The Daily Independent of Dublin thinks "Five out of every six electors who supported the victor did so out of sheer disgust for the cringing, crawling policy of the Irish party and the blundering tactics of their leaders." According to the pro-British Irish Times,
The Sinn Fein policy, so far, has developed on destruction and bitterness pregnant with menace to the peace of Ireland, let this policy triumphed over the memory of a devoted soldier and swept the Nationalists out of a seat held without opposition for twenty years.
The Express is of the opinion that the election is the most portentous thing in modern Irish political history, and believes that the "Nationalists can do little at the convention" but record their pious opinions.

ENGLAND OWES DOMINICANS.
To the Dominicans England owes the erection of the first great Calvary or wayside cross to commemorate the dead of the war. This was unveiled at Woodchester on Trinity Sunday by the Bishop of Clifton. A great crucifix twenty-one feet high dominates the roadside. It is approached by a small scilla sancta closed by gates, and when completed will be flanked by two mourning angels. On a slab at the foot appear the names of all the men of the district who have given their lives in the cause of freedom, and a note that the Calvary was set up by subscriptions
from Catholics and Protestants alike, who sent from all parts of the empire.

ANNOUNCEMENT

In making my announcement
as candidate for the Democratic nomination for Representative from the Forty-fourth legislative district I wish to call attention to the fact that in 1915 my vote
in that district, which is composed of city and county precincts, was larger than that of Gov. Stanley's. My defeat in the general election by 129 votes was accomplished by the importation of many negro repeaters.

FOR WOMAN'S EYE.

Many all-white, hats are toque
shape.
High-waisted frocks are the fashion now.
Georgette was never more liked
than this season.
Felt sport hats are not too hot
for summer wear.
Trieots and serges are promised
for coming months for skirts.
Tam O'Shanter's are most attractive for the very young woman.
For the summer - evening frock
white georgette seems almost ideal.
White cuffs are again being attached to the coats of tailored suits.
All-white hats are more and more popular with the season's advance.
The shirt waist dress again bobs up, the same little plain frock that makes a smart appearance.
Everybody now wears the one-piece frocks. They come in linen, in voile, in crepe and in satin.
Khaki-colored hats made like the regulation guardsman's hats are enjoying certain vogue among young women.

PRIZE CORN BREAD.

To make St. Louis prize corn bread take one pint of sour milk and into it stir one teaspoonful of baking soda. Add one quart of sifted corn meal, one teaspoonful of salt and one well beaten egg. Mix well and into this batter pour white hot three tablespoonfuls of melted lard or drippings. Pour into a warm, well greased pan and bake thirty minutes in a hot oven.

MAKES GOOD BREAD.

Boil one scant cup of rice in water
until soft and every grain separate.
Take one pint of corn meal and scald with one pint of sweet milk.
Stir in the rice while the meal and milk are hot. Beat four eggs separately and stir in, add one tablespoonful of sugar, a tablespoonful of butter and a pinch of salt. Pour into a pan and bake in a hot oven.

THEIR OWN PAPER.

Beginning with the July edition of the National Hibernian, the paper will be discontinued to the members of the Ladies' Auxiliary
to the Ancient Order of Hibernians.
The Boston convention of 1916 empowered the National Board of the Ladies' Auxiliary to issue a paper at their discretion that would be devoted absolutely to the interests of the Auxiliary, and plans are to be formulated for the presentation at the next national convention for the launching of the new paper.

FLAGS FLY FROM CHURCH.

Rev. Vincent Hartung, rector of St. Luke's Catholic church in Belleville, Mo., is flying the Stars and Stripes and the green flag of Erin from the steeple of his church. He told critics that the Irish flag would stay there alongside of the American banner until the war is won.
Father Hartung said the Irish flag typifies the struggles of the Irish for freedom, and that as this war was for the liberty of all peoples he hoped it would bring Ireland the boon she has sought so long.

HARD LUCK.

Whisky has gone up a dollar a gallon—which is hard luck for those prohibitionists who get their booze by express.

The Last Dollar

That you spent for something you did not NEED would have started a SAVINGS ACCOUNT with this bank; to bear interest COMPOUNDED twice a year; There MAY COME a time when your "LAST DOLLAR" must be spent for something you DO NEED. The SAVING now of the

READ, STOP, THINK

The following extract is from a letter to the present Coroner which appeared in various papers:
"In my opinion there is no legal objection to your re-election."
(Signed) "M. M. LOGAN,
"Attorney General."

That is not the question. The question is:

CAN THE PRESENT CORONER LEGALLY HOLD TWO OFFICES AT THE SAME TIME—one under the Civil and one under the Federal Government, and draw $5,000 per year from one and $3,000 per year from the other?

Section 237, Kentucky Constitution, expressly prohibits any such act, and Section 3774, Kentucky Statutes, gives the penalty. VOTE for

HIBERNIANS.

What They Have Been Doing
the Past Week—General
News Notes.

President John M. Riley, of Division 3, appointed his picnic committee last night.

Every member should enlist his friends in making the picnic the biggest success in years.

Milwaukee Hibernians are recruiting a company of Irish soldiers that will soon be ready for muster.

County President Hennessy hopes to realize enough out of the picnic to pay the national assessment.

Division 3 of South Omaha will have its annual reunion tomorrow, with an old fiddler's contest as a feature.

All are proud of the showing of Brother Walter Murphy and his A. O. H. team in the Twin City League.

The big initiation at South Omaha, for which preparation has been making for some time, takes place August 5.

The big reunion at Los Angeles takes place tomorrow. One of the special attractions will be the Ladies' hurling team.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of Washington have entered the work of assisting our soldiers during the period of their camp life.

The Ladies' Auxiliary have secured many nice prizes for the euchre and lotto on the afternoon and evening of the picnic.

The Mayo Men's Association of San Francisco will give 25 per cent. of the net receipts of their reunion to the Hibernians for the entertainment of the national convention next year.

With very impressive ceremony and many attending twenty candidates recently became members of the Ladies' Auxiliary at St. Paul. The work of the degree team received much praise.

Ellis Division of the Ladies' Auxiliary of Sacramento celebrated its anniversary with an enjoyable musical programme and elegant repast. The prizes for the membership contest were awarded. Mrs. N. Gleason receiving a gold brooch set with diamonds.

HOLY CROSS LAWN FETE.

Holy Cross church, Thirty-second and Broadway, will give its annual chicken supper and lawn fete on Monday and Tuesday, July 23 and 24, on the church lawn. Many handsome prizes will be awarded at the euchre and lotto each afternoon, and each evening there will be many new and novel forms of entertainments introduced by the various committees in charge. Special attention will be given to the chicken supper, which will be served by the ladies for thirty-five cents. The proceeds of this affair will be used to reduce the debt on the new school building.

KANSAS CITY TODAY.

Our wandering Colonels will open up their Western series with Kansas City today and there will be a battle royal, as for the past ten days these two teams have been clinched in the first division. Leaving Kansas City the Louisville club will go to Milwaukee, Minneapolis and St. Paul in turn, playing Indianapolis on the way home, which games would have been the last abroad according to the original schedule-drafted. With the lengthening of the schedule Louisville's chances for the pennant brightened and from present indications will again battle it out with Indianapolis. Kansas City is playing a weak fielding game and third position will be the best they can do.

Our team has now the best line-up of the season and should come home close to first position.

TWIN CITY LEAGUE.

Pitcher Charles Henry, of the Hibernian team, absorbed all of the glory in the Twin City League last Sunday, pitching a no-hit game against Trinity Council, only thirty men facing him in the nine innings. This is the first no-hit game in the history of the Twin City and the A. O. H. club and its followers are all swelled up with pride over the achievement. In addition to his twirling Charley hammered out a home run and two singles, helping his teammates to pile up the big score of 20 to 0. The Imperials beat the leaderless Bertrands 13 to 3, while the Orioles trimmed the Champs in an exciting contest, the score being 7 to 6. Eilers staged a come-back in the league with a home run, triple and single, while "Jimmy" Hogan played a la Roxy Roach at short for the winners. The schedule tomorrow: Orioles vs. Mackin, K. of C. vs. Trinity (help! help!), Hibernians vs. Bertrands and Champs vs. Imperials. The standing to date:

	Won	Lost	Pct.
K. of C.	11	1	.917
Mackin	9	3	.750
Orioles	9	3	.750
Champions	6	6	.500
Imperials	6	6	.500
Hibernians	5	7	.416
Bertrands	2	10	.167
Trinity	0	12	.000

Division 4, of the A. O. H., will be host to the Hibernian ball players next Monday evening with a Dutch lunch in Bertrand Hall.

JOINS THE MARINES.

Joseph N. Higgins, of the Kentucky Irish American office, enlisted in the United States Marines and left Tuesday evening for the marine training camp at Parris Island, S. C. Joe is a fine "broth" of a boy and will uphold the traditions of the good old race from which he sprung. His brother, Frank J. Higgins, is Sergeant in Company A, First Kentucky Infantry.

ST. PATRICK'S.

Not only the parishioners of St. Patrick's church, but every one is cordially invited to attend the euchre and lotto party to be given Monday night in St. Patrick's Hall, Thirteenth and Market, under the auspices of the young ladies who graduated last year. They are Misses Mary Murphy, Estelle Dougherty, Pauline Arnold, Viola Riley, Bessie Murphy, Catherine Glenn, Margaret McElliott, Agnes Nicholas, Ella Keane, Catherine Welsh, Cecelia Finnerty and Mary Teresa Bartley. They hope to meet all their friends and assure them a pleasant evening.

JOHN D. RYAN.

John D. Ryan, President of the Anaconda Copper Company, has been appointed Director General of military relief. Some of his duties will include the caring for the health and comfort of the American troops in France. He has the distinction of starting from a clerkship in a small store in the mining regions of Michigan and becoming President of the largest mining company in the world. His business interests are largely in Montana.

LEBANON.

The political race that is attracting most interest in Marion county is that for Jailer, for which W. T. Madden, of Lebanon, is a candidate. Mr. Madden held the office for several terms and made a record that assures his nomination and election. Like the Jailer of Jefferson county, he is popular with the masses, and people from Lebanon here this week feel confident he will receive a big majority.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

Late News That Will Interest
Members Here and Elsewhere.

There are fifty-nine councils in Indiana with a total of 10,039 members.

The New York State Council maintains eighteen college scholarships, each worth $500.

Louisiana's membership was increased forty-nine by Planquenne Council's recent initiation.

A number of Kentucky Knights are looking for at the Put-in-Bay outing during the week of August 5-12.

Denver Knights have pledged $10,000 to the fund for recreation centers in the American military camps.

Oswego Knights, who number 500, will contribute $2,000 to the fund being raised for equipping army camps.

One of the biggest initiations yet witnessed in Michigan took place at Muskegon, when a class of over a hundred received the three degrees.

The million-dollar campaign week opens tomorrow. This drive for Catholic soldiers should prove the most successful the order has ever undertaken.

FOLLOW THE COLORS.

So many members of the Holy Name Society in New Jersey have answered the call to the colors that it has been decided not to have the organization make its annual parade in October. In the Fourth New Jersey Infantry alone there are 706 Holy Name men.

CONVENTION POSTPONED.

The annual convention of the Catholic Hospital Association will not be held this year, nor will the Marquette Summer School for laboratory technicians be conducted this year. The reasons for this decision are the adverse conditions of the country and many expressions of opinion obtained from different parts of the country. During the coming year plans will be made for a great convention in 1918, when the summer courses at Marquette Medical School will be resumed. These events, however, again depend upon the conditions of the country and the opinions of those interested in the work.

TREAT BALL PLAYERS.

Division 4, the Limerick division of the A. O. H., will entertain the ball players of the Hibernian team of the Twin City League in Bertrand Hall next Monday evening and President Thomas Lynch appointed W. P. McDonogh, James J. McTigue, T. J. Langan, John H. Hennessy and John J. Barry to arrange a Dutch lunch for their guests. The spread is intended as a mark of appreciation of the showing made by Manager "Boots" Murphy and his boys in the Twin City.

NEXT WEEK'S BILL.

In the Fontaine Perry Park Theater bill for next week a novel Chinese offering, entitled "The Children of Confucius," will occupy the headline position. The act is beautifully staged and the costumes gorgeous. Eddie and Birdi Conrad will also prove diverting on the new bill. John Orren and Lillian Drew, a Louisville team, will present an original novelty, "A Barnyard Episode." Guilan and Newell and the Helen Leach Wallin trio will add comedy and sensationalism to the programme.

KEEP HIM IN JAIL.

He is the originator of the humanizing idea in the Jefferson County Jail. He established the Foster School to enlighten and reform men and women. Result: The Jefferson County Jail of today has won national renown for its solution of the criminal problem in America. Clean as a pin—standard and at the head of the class—management sane and practical. Press and public say so; but ask anybody—in or out of jail. Vote for CHAS. C.
